

Your private world, above Acapulco Bay

PRIVATE RESORT COMPOUND / LAS BRISAS, ACAPULCO

AN ENTIRE ESTATE. ONE PRIVATE STAY.

Entirely yours. Every day.

Set across more than 10,000 square meters in Las Brisas, Villa Sábalo brings together tropical gardens, 13 suites, a 40-meter infinity pool and a dedicated hospitality team in one private compound overlooking Acapulco Bay. There is space to gather, room to retreat, and the freedom to make each day your own.

From a quiet morning beneath the arches to an evening that ends in your own nightclub, the entire experience unfolds around you.

M² OF GROUNDS

Open to the bay. Made for gathering.

White arches, shaded terraces and expansive living spaces follow the hillside toward the water. A generous main lounge, distinctive dining settings and places to pause throughout the house make shared time feel effortless.

The bay is always part of the room.

Forty meters of possibility.

HEATED INFINITY POOL / JACUZZI / BAY-FACING TERRACES

Just one more moment.

A heated infinity pool stretches across the estate's bay-facing terrace. Drift between a swim, the jacuzzi and a shaded seat beneath the palapa. Stay for a long lunch. Watch the light change. The view is always part of the day.

Take the scenic way home.

Around 3,800 square meters of tropical gardens reveal stone pathways, waterfalls, sculptures and unexpected places to settle in. Two garden palapas and an upper garden dome lounge offer different settings for conversation, an intimate dinner or a quiet hour outdoors.

A different corner for every mood.

Upper garden dome lounge, shaded palapas and paths that reveal a little more of the estate.

A spa of your own.

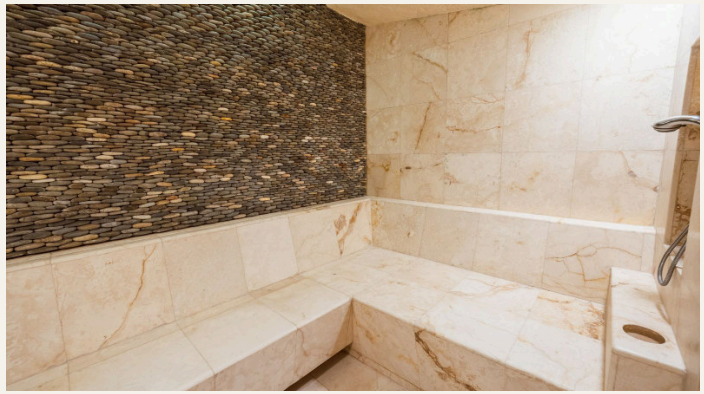

Let the day begin with a treatment and end with nowhere you need to be. Therapists and other wellness professionals can be arranged by the house team.

Move at your own pace.

The private spa brings together two massage rooms, a Vichy shower room and a steam area. Arrange a treatment, a yoga session or simply an unhurried morning. The gym and the estate's own padel court keep movement close at hand.

WELLNESS PROFESSIONALS ON REQUEST

Play where it all began.

Padel began in Las Brisas in 1969, when Enrique Corcuera built the sport's first court at his Acapulco home. Enjoy your own match in the neighborhood where it all started.

Your favorite company.

A table set around you.

A private chef and kitchen team shape the menus around your group, your preferences and the occasion. Think leisurely breakfasts, poolside lunches and dinners that move from the main dining room to the gardens or the upper pavilion.

Consider it taken care of.

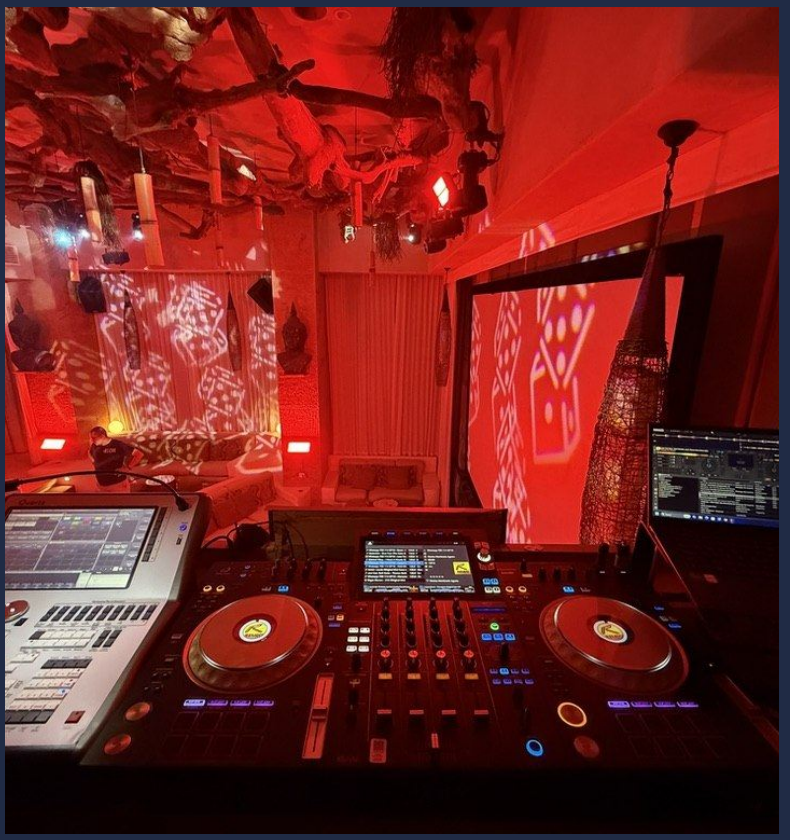

Your dedicated house manager coordinates the details, supported by kitchen, service, housekeeping and garden teams. Share your plans and preferences before arrival, then settle into the rhythm of the house.

The evening, on your terms.

One more song.
One more story.

Dinner can be just the beginning. Ricky'O brings a private nightclub, entertainment spaces and an adjoining speakeasy into the estate. Music, conversation and one last drink happen on your own terms.

Your own kind of night.

Choose a film in the cinema-style lounge, a game of billiards, a gathering by the bar or a poolside screening beneath the night sky. A professional DJ and special entertainment can be arranged for the occasion.

Thirteen suites. Your people.

6 KING SUITES / 7 DOUBLE QUEEN SUITES / UP TO 26 GUESTS

Space to share. Room to retreat.

Six King suites and seven Double Queen suites offer a flexible setting for families and friends, with a maximum of two guests per bedroom. Warm interiors, individual details and room to unwind make the quieter parts of a shared stay just as memorable.

The quieter side of a shared stay.

Individual details, warm interiors and different views of the estate give each room its own character. The house team can help choose a room allocation that suits your group.

A little time to yourself.

Some lower-level rooms are reached by stairs. The house team can help plan the room allocation around your group.

Make a little occasion of it.

Bring everyone together for a birthday, a reunion, a retreat or a long-awaited holiday. From an intimate dinner to a carefully planned celebration, the house offers a remarkable collection of spaces to make the moment yours.

Bring your people. Make it yours.

Scenes from a private gathering at the estate. The driveway and covered parking provide a generous arrival setting.

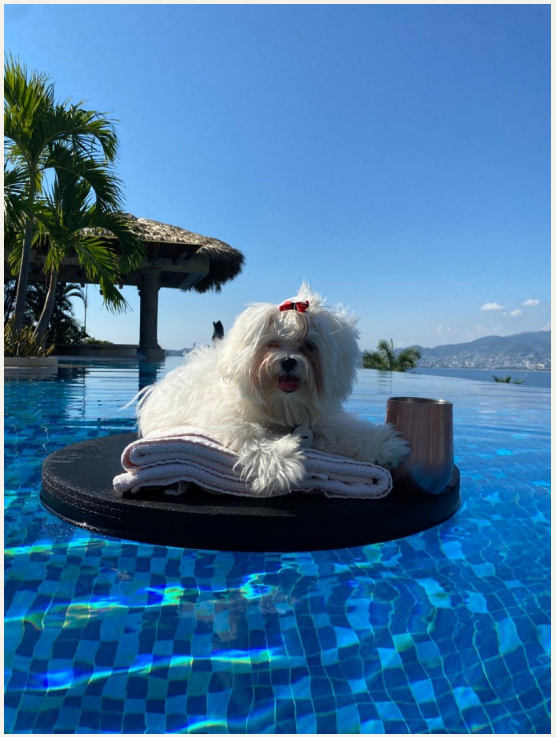

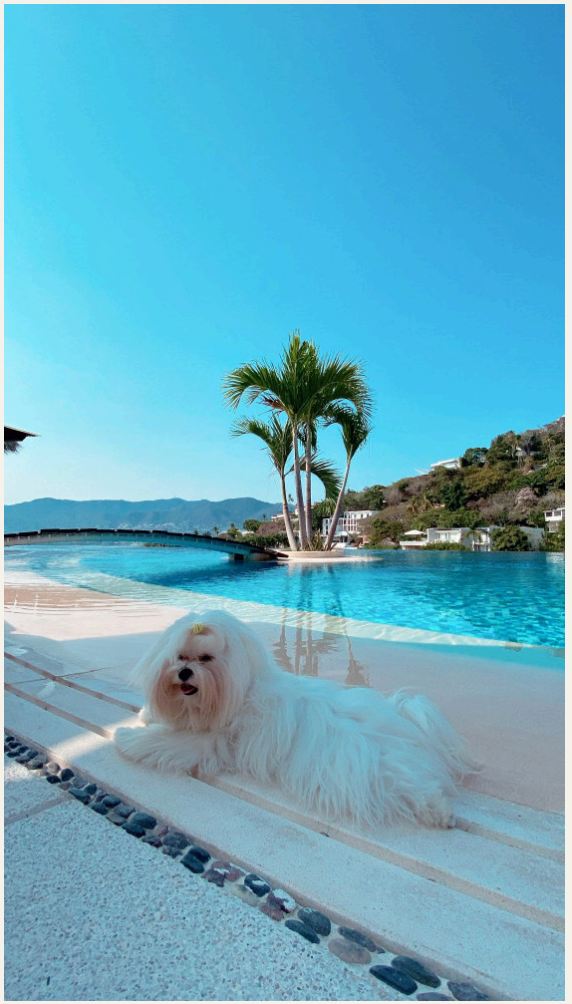

The best part is who you share it with.

An unhurried swim, a sunset drink and one more evening together. Your own little world above the bay.

Their kind of holiday, too.

Slow mornings by the pool, new corners to explore, and your favorite companion close by. At Villa Sábalo, a shared holiday can include the four-legged member of your family.

Pets are permitted with prior notice. A US$50 fee per pet, per day applies.

Above the bay. Within Las Brisas.

Villa Sábalo is set in Las Brisas, on the hills overlooking Acapulco Bay. Its elevated setting brings the panorama into daily life, from the pool terrace to the open living spaces.

The Club Residencial Las Brisas residents' association documents controlled entry for people and vehicles, together with neighborhood security patrols.

Round-trip ground transfers between Acapulco International Airport and Villa Sábalo are included. Your house manager coordinates the arrival details and helps plan local outings.
